Remarks

Some homes tell you everything from the curb. This one prefers to wait. Its classic Southern façade keeps its best story to itself, revealing only subtle hints of an interior that feels both grounded and remarkably current.

Inside, the home is designed around movement rather than moments, trading convention for composition and embracing contrast so that nothing competes for attention. Rather than asking one room to do all the work, the property unfolds as a collection of thoughtfully connected spaces, each contributing to a home that is greater than the sum of its parts. The kitchen is further distinguished by a thoughtfully selected suite of premium appliances, including an LG Signature refrigerator, Miele dishwasher, and Wolf drawer microwave.

Beyond the walls of glass, composite decking gives way to an expansive stone terrace anchored by a masonry fireplace, extending the home's architectural character into the landscape. Positioned on an oversized homesite framed by mature landscaping within Southbridge, the property offers privacy while remaining just minutes from Historic Savannah, Gulfstream, and the conveniences of Savannah's Westside.
